Supreme Court Steps Back on Virtual Court Access Dispute, Directs Petitioners to Approach High Court E-Committees

Sheikh Rayees • April 18, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant move on Thursday, the Supreme Court concluded its involvement in a case that emerged during the COVID-19 pandemic, which sought the right to access court hearings through virtual platforms. The petition, which was filed by the All India Association of Jurists, raised concerns over limited access to video links and muted audio during virtual court proceedings. The bench, led by Justices Vikram Nath and Sandeep Mehta, chose...
