Supreme Court Steps In Relief for Accused Educators in School Harassment Case

Sheikh Rayees • July 25, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent legal twist, the Supreme Court granted anticipatory bail to a school principal and two teachers accused of subjecting a 16-year-old student to a pregnancy test and ongoing harassment. This distressing situation allegedly led the young girl to attempt suicide twice, an incident that has sparked outrage and concern. The girl claimed that a rumor was spread among the students, accusing her of having an affair with the...
