Supreme Court Stresses Strict Adherence to Special Bail Conditions in Organized Crime Cases

Sheikh Rayees • January 3, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court underscored that courts must adhere to stringent bail conditions outlined in special laws, setting aside a High Court order that granted bail to individuals charged under the Maharashtra Control of Organized Crime Act, 1999 (MCOCA). A bench comprising Justices CT Ravikumar and Sanjay Karol emphasized that special statutes like MCOCA impose strict prerequisites for granting bail. Under Section 21(4) of MCOCA, bail cannot be granted unless the...
