Supreme Court Strikes Down High Court's Bail Order Tying Marriage to Freedom

Sheikh Rayees • August 2, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a move that drew a clear line between legal process and personal relationships, the Supreme Court has overturned a Jharkhand High Court order that had tied a husband's anticipatory bail to a deeply personal condition: resume conjugal life with his estranged wife and “maintain her with dignity.” The top court, through a bench of Justices Dipankar Datta and A.G. Masih, declared that such a condition had no legal anchor...
