Supreme Court Strikes Down Jharkhand's 2010 Hiring Process, Declares It Unconstitutional

Sheikh Rayees • February 11, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has nullified the 2010 recruitment process for Class-IV employees in Jharkhand, ruling it unconstitutional and ordering a fresh hiring drive within six months. The decision underscores the necessity of fairness, transparency, and adherence to constitutional principles in public employment. A bench comprising Justices Pankaj Mithal and Sandeep Mehta upheld the Jharkhand High Court's termination of several appointees without granting them a...
