Supreme Court Tears Down Arrests Under UAPA

Says Written Grounds Can't Be Replaced by Court's Explanation

Sheikh Rayees • October 25, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a ruling that reasserts procedural fairness over investigative convenience, the Supreme Court has struck down the arrest and remand of three individuals accused under the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act (UAPA) and sections of the Indian Penal Code, holding that the authorities failed to provide written grounds of arrest—a safeguard the Court called “non-negotiable.”
