SUPREME COURT

Supreme Court to Define Boundaries of Writ Petitions Against MSEFC Decisions

Sheikh Rayees • January 23, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court's Constitution Bench is poised to deliver a pivotal ruling on whether High Courts can entertain writ petitions under Article 226 against orders issued by the Micro and Small Enterprises Facilitation Council (MSEFC). This judgment could reshape the legal framework governing remedies for micro and small enterprises in payment disputes. Context and Referral The MSEFC, created under the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development (MSMED) Act of...
