SUPREME COURT

Supreme Court to Establish Nationwide Guidelines on Demolition of Accused's Properties

Sheikh Rayees • September 4, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a pivotal move, the Supreme Court has decided to craft comprehensive guidelines to regulate the demolition of properties owned by individuals accused of crimes. This decision comes in response to ongoing petitions challenging the legality and fairness of such demolitions. The court, led by Justices BR Gavai and KV Viswanathan, is soliciting input from all parties involved to develop these guidelines. Justice Gavai highlighted the absurdity of demolishing a...
