Supreme Court Unchains Journalist Jailed Over Guest's Outburst on Live TV

Sheikh Rayees • June 13, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a case that sparked fierce debates on journalistic responsibility and free speech, the Supreme Court on Friday granted bail to veteran journalist Kommineni Srinivasa Rao, arrested earlier this week over a controversial remark made not by him, but by a panelist on his show. Rao, who anchors the "KSR Live Show" on Sakshi TV, found himself in police custody after a guest on his programme described Amaravati as the...
