Supreme Court Upholds Broader Rights for Landowners in Compensation Claims

Sheikh Rayees • December 16, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a pivotal ruling, the Supreme Court has affirmed that landowners can seek re-determination of compensation under Section 28-A of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, based on High Court decisions enhancing compensation, not just those by the Reference Court under Section 18. This decision underscores the Act's intent to extend equitable benefits to all affected landowners, even those who initially refrained from seeking reference. The case revolved around land acquired...
