Supreme Court Upholds Regular Pay for Part-Time Sweepers Appointed to Sanctioned Posts

Sheikh Rayees • February 2, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a pivotal ruling, the Supreme Court has confirmed that part-time sweepers, appointed temporarily to regular sanctioned positions, are entitled to receive regular pay. The judgment, delivered on January 31, 2025, dismissed the State of Madhya Pradesh's claim that a part-time designation precluded the workers from benefiting from a regular salary. The bench, led by Justices Vikram Nath and Prasanna B. Varale, clarified that the workers' appointment to permanent...
