Supreme Court Urges Centre to Act Swiftly on Collegium's Judicial Appointments Amid Growing Court Backlog

Sheikh Rayees • May 9, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has raised urgent concerns regarding the delay in judicial appointments, as vacancies continue to plague the nation's High Courts. During a session on May 8, the Court emphasized the pressing need for the Centre to swiftly approve the recommendations made by the Supreme Court Collegium for judge appointments. Justices Abhay S. Oka and Ujjal Bhuyan issued a stark warning, noting that the backlog of criminal appeals in...
