Supreme Court Warns Against Delaying Witness Cross-Examinations

Sheikh Rayees • July 4, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a gripping courtroom drama, the Supreme Court of India on Wednesday sent a stern message to trial courts, urging them to avoid long adjournments after the examination-in-chief of witnesses. This directive came amidst the appeal of a former police guard, Surender Singh, who was convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment for a murder that transpired back in 2002. Justice Sudhanshu Dhulia and Justice Rajesh Bindal, while delivering their judgment,...
