Supreme Court Warns Against Misuse of Domestic Violence Laws in Matrimonial Disputes

Sheikh Rayees • November 27, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has urged courts to exercise caution in matrimonial disputes under Section 498A of the Indian Penal Code, emphasizing the need to prevent undue accusations against distant relatives of the husband. A bench of Justices CT Ravikumar and Rajesh Bindal quashed criminal proceedings against a cousin of the husband and his wife, who were implicated in an FIR lodged by the wife's father. The apex court criticized the...
