SUPREME COURT

Supreme Court Warns Against “Punishing Success” as It Shuts Down Aggressive Antitrust Push

Sheikh Rayees • May 14, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a ruling that echoed both economic realism and constitutional restraint, the Supreme Court has cautioned regulators against letting zeal cloud judgment. At the center of it all: a long-running antitrust dispute that tested the boundaries of what it means to dominate a market—and whether doing so lawfully should invite punishment. The case—originating from a 2010 complaint by Kapoor Glass against Schott Glass India—accused Schott of exclusionary...
