Supreme Court Warns PILs Not a Battlefield for Warring Officers

Sheikh Rayees • August 22, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has drawn a hard line against the misuse of Public Interest Litigations, declaring that they cannot be converted into a proxy warzone for rival government officers seeking to outmaneuver each other. A bench led by Chief Justice BR Gavai, along with Justices K Vinod Chandran and NV Anjaria, was dealing with contempt petitions alleging that Jharkhand flouted the landmark Prakash Singh directions while appointing its Director General...
