SUPREME COURT

Supreme Court Warns Preserve Answer Scripts or Face Allegations of Misconduct

Sheikh Rayees • September 30, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a pivotal ruling concerning the recruitment of primary teachers in Manipur, the Supreme Court emphasized that authorities must preserve candidates' answer scripts until the completion of the selection process to prevent accusations of wrongdoing. The Court stressed that safeguarding these documents throughout the entire recruitment phase is not just prudent but essential to maintain transparency and accountability. The Supreme Court bench, comprising...
