Supreme Court Warns

Written Instructions Mandatory for Government Representation

Sheikh Rayees • October 24, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a sharp reminder to government bodies, the Supreme Court has stressed the need for accurate, written submissions in all cases to avoid misrepresentation. The bench highlighted that relying on oral instructions alone opens the door to misunderstandings that could damage both the involved parties and public trust in the judicial system. The ruling emphasized that government officials must provide detailed written instructions to their counsel to ensure that any...
