Supreme Court Wrestles with MSME Act Disputes

Writ Petitions and Arbitration Powers Sent to Larger Bench

Sheikh Rayees • January 23, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has spotlighted critical questions regarding the Micro, Small, and Medium Enterprises Development Act (MSMED Act) by referring two pivotal issues to a larger bench for clarity. The case centers on whether High Courts can entertain writ petitions challenging awards made by the Micro and Small Enterprises Facilitation Council (MSEFC) and whether MSEFC members can transition from conciliators to arbitrators in disputes. Writ...
