THE LAWYERS' POST
BY THE COURT CAST PROJECT

COURT OF RECORD

Supreme Court's Judicial Scrutiny

Safeguarding Liberties in GST Act Interpretation

Iftikhar Hassan Samoon • May 2, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent judicial session, the Supreme Court of India delved into a series of petitions challenging the penal clauses of the Goods and Services Tax (GST) Act, along with provisions of the Customs Act. Amidst these discussions, the Court articulated concerns regarding the vagueness encapsulated within Section 69 of the GST Act, particularly concerning arrest provisions. The bench, comprising Justices Sanjiv Khanna, MM Sundresh, and Bela M Trivedi, expressed...

Full report • lawyerspost.in

FULL STORY