Suspicious Hospital Parole Scheme Sparks High Court Inquiry

Sheikh Rayees • September 16, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

A significant surge in parole applications backed by medical certificates from a single hospital has raised red flags, prompting the Bombay High Court's Aurangabad Bench to call for an investigation. Noting the curious frequency of certificates issued by Eagle Multispeciality Hospital in Ranjangaon, the Court has instructed the District Superintendent of Police in Aurangabad to delve into the matter, with the inquiry to be completed within 15 days. The...
