Tamil Nadu to Drop Challenge in KN Nehru Vigilance Case; High Court Freezes Further Action Until June 23

Sheikh Rayees • June 6, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

A significant turn unfolded before the Madras High Court on Friday when the Tamil Nadu government indicated that it plans to withdraw its review petition linked to an earlier judicial directive ordering the registration of a Directorate of Vigilance and Anti-Corruption (DVAC) case against former Minister and DMK leader KN Nehru. The matter came up before a Bench led by Chief Justice Sushrut Arvind Dharmadhikari and Justice G. Arul Murugan....
