Accepting Sale Money for Years Undermines Fraud Claim Against Lok Adalat Award

Sheikh Rayees • October 22, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

A party cannot accept and retain money arising from a property transaction for years and then seek to invalidate the settlement by alleging fraud, the Telangana High Court has ruled while dismissing a challenge brought a decade after a Lok Adalat award. A division bench of Justice Moushumi Bhattacharya and Justice Renuka Yara delivered the ruling in Smt. M Nagalakshmi and Another v. The Chairman, Mandal Legal Services Committee, Cyberabad...
