Telangana High Court Affirms Government's Right to Choose Its Legal Representation

Sheikh Rayees • August 31, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Telangana High Court has upheld the Congress-led state government's decision to dismiss legal officers appointed by the previous Bharat Rashtra Samithi (BRS) administration. These lawyers, who served in various courts within the District Judiciary between 2021 and 2023, had their services terminated following a government order issued on June 26. The removed law officers contested the decision, arguing that they were not given an opportunity to be heard before...
