Telangana High Court Upholds Inquiry into Power Deals, Rejects KCR's Challenge

Sheikh Rayees • July 2, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant legal decision, the Telangana High Court has upheld an inquiry by a commission regarding alleged irregularities in power procurement during the previous regime led by K Chandrashekhar Rao (KCR). The commission, headed by retired Justice Narasimha Reddy, faced scrutiny from KCR, who argued against its jurisdiction and alleged bias. The court, however, ruled in favor of the commission's authority, stating that its mandate extended beyond previous...
