Temple Fireworks Under Fire

High Court Petition Calls for Crackdown on Noise Violations

Sheikh Rayees • February 8, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

A petition before the Kerala High Court has raised alarms over temples allegedly defying firecracker bans in silent zones, disturbing residents and violating pollution norms. The plea, filed by 59-year-old Venkidachalam, calls for strict enforcement of restrictions on fireworks, particularly at night, arguing that the explosions disrupt public peace and pose health hazards. He claims his home, just 300 meters from the Vadakkumnadhan and Paramakkavu temples in Thrissur, is...
