J&K High Court Demands Answers on Missing Advocate General

Sheikh Rayees • June 10, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The courtroom in Jammu recently echoed with a question that has no easy answer: How long can a law exist without someone to enforce it? The High Court of Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh, through Justice Rahul Bharti, raised the alarm over the prolonged vacancy in the post of Advocate General—an absence that, in legal terms, has turned a vital statutory tool into a ghost provision. The concern came during...
