Allahabad High Court's Stand on Prisoners' Rights

Sheikh Rayees • August 9, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent ruling, the Allahabad High Court shed light on a troubling reality that stands in stark contrast to the nation's celebrations of freedom. While the country basks in the glow of its "Amrit Kaal of Azaadi," a segment of the population remains isolated behind prison walls, cut off from the very constitutional rights that define their citizenship. Justice Ajay Bhanot, while presiding over a series of bail petitions,...
