COURT OF RECORD

Three Decades on Daily Wages Supreme Court Tells UP to End 'Ad-hocism' and Regularise Workers

Sheikh Rayees • August 21, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

For over thirty years, a group of employees in Uttar Pradesh's higher education services worked day after day, year after year, without the dignity of permanent status. Their pay slips bore the stamp of "temporary," but their labour was anything but fleeting. Now, the Supreme Court has drawn a hard line—calling the State's excuses of financial strain a hollow shield—and ordered their regularisation. A bench of Justices Vikram Nath and...
