PUBLISHED REPORT

A fresh chapter dawned in India's highest court today as Justices NV Anjaria, Vijay Bishnoi, and Atul S Chandurkar took the solemn oath to serve as Supreme Court judges. The Chief Justice of India, BR Gavai, presided over the ceremony, marking the official induction of these judicial heavyweights. This moment follows swiftly on the heels of the government's formal nod to their appointments, making the Supreme Court's sanctioned strength a...
