Delhi High Court Slams System's Cold Shoulder to Child Rape Survivor

Sheikh Rayees • March 22, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a scathing rebuke that cut through courtroom protocol, the Delhi High Court pulled up both the trial court and the police for their startling lack of sensitivity toward a young rape survivor caught in the gears of the legal process. The case involved a minor girl who, under the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, should have received the system's utmost care. Instead, when she was too...
