Supreme Court Targets Temple Litigation Tangles in Uttar Pradesh

Sheikh Rayees • December 10, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has raised an alarm over the protracted and profit-driven legal entanglements surrounding temple administration in Uttar Pradesh, particularly in Mathura. Expressing its discontent, the Court criticized the long-standing practice of appointing advocates as court receivers for temple management, suggesting that such appointments often result in vested interests prolonging disputes for personal gain. A bench comprising Justices Bela...
