Unified Arbitration Accepted by Delhi High Court for Linked Contracts

Zurain Bukhari • May 3, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent ruling by the High Court of Delhi, Justice Prathiba M. Singh appointed a sole arbitrator, Justice A.K. Sikri (Retd.), to resolve disputes spanning nine contracts related to a large-scale Carbon Black Plant Project in Dahej, Gujarat. This decision aims to streamline the process and avoid conflicting judgments that might arise from separate proceedings. The legal contention centered around the existence of arbitration clauses in only five out...
