Allahabad High Court Cracks Down on Fake Marriages

Sheikh Rayees • July 30, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent ruling, the Allahabad High Court voiced concerns over the fraudulent acquisition of marriage certificates, allegedly facilitated by certain officials within the Marriage Registration Office. The court noted that these forged documents are often used by couples to secure legal protection, despite contravening the Hindu Marriage Act of 1955. Justice Vinod Diwakar highlighted the disturbing trend of individuals obtaining fake marriage certificates, often with...
