PUBLISHED REPORT

In a legal showdown echoing the plight of the consumer against corporate giants, the District Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission in Thrissur, Kerala, wielded its gavel with resolute force. With a swift stroke of justice, Britannia Industries, along with a local bakery, found themselves at the receiving end of a hefty fine totaling a staggering INR60,000. The saga unfolded when a vigilant consumer, Mr. George Thattil, dared to question the integrity...
