Bar Council Halts New Law Colleges for Three Years

Sheikh Rayees • August 14, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a decisive move to restore the sanctity of legal education, the Bar Council of India (BCI) has declared a three-year moratorium on the creation of new law colleges across the nation. This pause is a direct response to a burgeoning crisis: the unchecked proliferation of institutions that prioritize profit over pedagogy, a trend that the BCI says threatens the very foundation of the legal profession. A Stand Against Substandard...
