Uttarakhand HC Slams Drug Investigations, Warns of National Threat

Sheikh Rayees • August 12, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a scathing critique, the Uttarakhand High Court recently highlighted a grave threat facing India: the infiltration of drug cartels backed by hostile forces, aimed at destabilizing the nation. Justice Vivek Bharti Sharma delivered a pointed observation, stating that these cartels, supported by international networks and disruptive elements, are waging a drug war with the ultimate goal of fragmenting India. "It is well-known that India is grappling with one of...
