Vindictive Measures Against Retiring Doctor Overturned by Supreme Court

Sheikh Rayees • January 21, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has set aside disciplinary penalties imposed on a retired Senior Medical Officer from Punjab, condemning the actions of government officials as vindictive and arbitrary. The Court noted that the penalties were a retaliatory move against the doctor, who had sought legal recourse to claim his rightful dues. The officer, relieved of his duties just days before retirement, faced charges including unauthorized leave and non-participation in a pulse...
