Karnataka High Court Champions Equal Opportunities for Visually Impaired Educators

Sheikh Rayees • November 19, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a landmark decision, the Karnataka High Court upheld the State Administrative Tribunal's directive to consider the application of a visually impaired woman for a teaching position, underscoring that blindness should not hinder an individual's ability to educate. The case revolved around Latha HN, a candidate with complete visual impairment and a Scheduled Caste background, who sought a post as a social studies teacher in Kannada. Despite her qualifications, she...
