Supreme Court Warns Hospitals of Licence Suspension in Trafficking Cases

Sheikh Rayees • April 16, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a searing rebuke of the growing menace of newborn trafficking, the Supreme Court has declared that any hospital found to be a part of such a crime should face the immediate suspension of its licence—no excuses, no delays. The top court didn't mince words. "If a newborn is trafficked from any hospital, the very first step must be suspending the hospital's licence," said the bench, helmed by Justices JB...
