When Law Meets Love

Supreme Court Erases POCSO Conviction, Says Justice Must Prevail Over Rigidity”

Sheikh Rayees • October 31, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In an extraordinary decision that blurred the line between legal duty and human compassion, the Supreme Court set aside the conviction of a man charged under the POCSO Act and Section 366 of the IPC — observing that the case was not one of lust, but of love that evolved into marriage and family.
