COURT OF RECORD

When the Air Turns Hostile

Madras High Court Backs Eco-Park as Chennai's Urgent Shield

Sheikh Rayees • December 2, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

Chennai's skyline may glitter, but the Madras High Court reminded the city that the air it breathes is a far more sobering reality. Drawing a sharp parallel with Delhi's choking winters, the Court declared that air pollution has crossed the threshold of environmental concern and stepped squarely into the terrain of a public health emergency.
