

THE

LAWYERS' POST

BY THE COURT CAST PROJECT

SUPREME COURT

When the Paper Speaks, Power Stops

Supreme Court Warns Against “After-the-Fact” Justifications

Sheikh Rayees • November 27, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a crisp reminder to government authorities, the Supreme Court has made it clear: an administrative order must stand — or fall — on the reasons written into it. No retrofiting. No patchwork repairs. No late-night creativity in affidavits.

Full report • lawyerspost.in

OPEN JUDGMENT PDF

FULL STORY

LAWYERSPOST.IN