

THE

LAWYERS' POST

BY THE COURT CAST PROJECT

COURT OF RECORD

When the River Remembers War

India Pauses the Indus Treaty After Pahalgam Bloodshed

Sheikh Rayees • April 25, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

For 65 years, a quiet current of diplomacy ran beneath the turbulence of India-Pakistan relations — a riverine agreement that defied wars, border skirmishes, and broken summits. But after the brutal killing of 26 tourists in Jammu and Kashmir's Pahalgam, that current has finally met resistance. On April 23, in a move that jolted decades of foreign policy orthodoxy, India hit pause on the Indus Waters Treaty — a landmark...

Full report • lawyerspost.in

OPEN JUDGMENT PDF

FULL STORY

LAWYERSPOST.IN