When Trust and Companionship Disappear

Supreme Court Declares Prolonged Deadlock in Marriage a Legal Formality

Sheikh Rayees • December 21, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has emphasized that a marriage stripped of mutual trust, companionship, and reconciliation becomes nothing more than a hollow legal structure. Prolonged separation and irreconcilable differences were highlighted as significant factors in deciding the fate of such matrimonial disputes. A bench comprising Justice Vikram Nath and Justice Prasanna B. Varale dismissed a woman's appeal challenging a High Court decision that granted her husband a...
