Who Can Cry Foul in Court's Execution Drama? Supreme Court Takes Up the Role of Referee

Sheikh Rayees • May 21, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has stepped into a growing legal tangle that's left lower courts split and litigants guessing: Can someone not directly named in a court decree step in and say, "Hey, don't throw me out!"? At the center of the storm is Order XXI Rule 97 of the Civil Procedure Code — a rule that governs what happens when there's resistance to enforcing a civil court's decision, like taking...
