C.S.Sudha, J.

As per order dated 03/10/2024, the petitioners and respondents were directed to file their responses to the counter affidavit filed on behalf of the 1st respondent. Some of them are yet to file their responses. The learned Advocate General submits that a comprehensive reply would be filed by the 1st respondent on receipt of copy of the responses of the other respondents. Any respondent who has not filed their response, shall do it within two days. The 1st respondent shall thereafter file their reply within a week.

2. We have gone through the entire Justice Hema Committee report including the redacted portion. We find that the statement of many witnesses recorded by the Committee reveal commission of cognizable offences. Hence, as directed in Order dated 10/09/2024, the statements given before the Committee shall be treated as 'information' as contemplated under Sec. 173 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (BNSS) and the SIT shall take necessary action as contemplated therein subject to Sec.173(3) BNSS.

3. The SIT shall take all precautions to see that the name of the victim/ survivor is not revealed or made public. The name of the victim/ survivor shall be masked in the FIS/FIR. The SIT shall ensure that the copy of the FIS is not uploaded or made public. The copy of the same shall not be issued to any person except to the victim/survivor (Sec.173(2) BNSS). The accused shall be entitled to same only on filing of the final report.

4. The SIT shall proceed with the investigation as per the relevant provisions of law and on completing the investigation, the investigating officer will decide whether any materials are made out for filing a final report (Sec.193 BNSS), and if so, proceed accordingly. If not, the investigating officer shall file a refer report.

5. The SIT in its action taken report dated 28/09/2024 has stated that none of the witnesses who have given statement before the Committee are ready to co-operate and give statement to the police. We reiterate that there cannot be any compulsion of the witnesses to give statement. The SIT on registration of a crime, shall take necessary steps to contact the victims/survivors and record their statements. In case the witnesses do not cooperate, and there are no materials to proceed with the case, appropriate steps as contemplated under Sec.176 BNSS shall be taken.

6. We also note that the report of the Committee refers to the rampant use of alcohol/drugs in the film shooting sets and other connected workplaces. The SIT shall conduct investigation into the same and take necessary action as contemplated under law.
