UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

Perused the office report dated 19th December, 2024. At last, six remaining petitions have been listed today. When there is an order of the Court directing listing of the cases specifically assigned to that Bench, the Registry cannot defy the order and refuse to list the cases on the ground that there was non-compliance with procedural aspects. The Registry is relying upon Rule 2 of Order XV of the Supreme Court Rules, 2013 which enjoins petitioner to serve notice of the caveat along with copy of the petition to the Caveator. In this case, six petitions were not listed notwithstanding the directions of this Court to list the same on the ground that the Advocate for the petitioner had not produced on record the proof of a service of copies of the petitions on caveators.

We do not find any Rule in the Supreme Court Rules, 2013 which provides that on the ground of the failure to comply with requirements of Rule 2 of Order XV, a case cannot be listed before the Court even if there is a direction of the Court to list it. There may be cases of extreme urgency. In such cases, the Registry cannot rely upon Rule 2 of Order XV and refuse to list the case.

We may at this stage refer to Section 148A of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908. If a caveator files a caveat, he gets right of hearing when the court considers the prayer for interim relief. In appeal or in Special Leave Petition, a caveator does not have right to be heard on the issue of grant of leave or admission of the appeal. He has a right of hearing on the prayer for interim relief. Moreover, apart from the obligation under sub-Section (5) of Section 148A of the petitioner/appellant, under sub-section 3 of Section 148A even this court is under an obligation to issue a notice of the application for interim relief to the caveator once it is noticed that there is a caveat filed.

Therefore, when there is a direction of the Court to list SLPs/appeals notwithstanding non-compliance with Rule 2 of Chapter XV of the Rules, Registry can always list the case before the Court with an office report highlighting the failure of the petitioner/appellant to comply with requirements of Rule 2 of Order XV of the Rules. We hope that the incident of defiance with the order of this Court is not repeated. However, no action is called for against erring court officials.

Registrar (Judicial) to take a note of this order.
