Supreme Court Slams Rejection of Accident Claim Over Minor Vehicle Detail

Sheikh Rayees • March 22, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a firm reminder that justice isn't about nitpicking over technicalities, the Supreme Court has overruled a High Court decision that denied compensation in a motor accident case simply because the vehicle's make was misidentified. The error? The vehicle was described as a TATA Sumo instead of a TATA Spacio. Despite the registration number and all other key details being accurate, the High Court had tossed out the compensation awarded...
